Greater Los Angeles

Date: December 14, 2007

To: Federal Executive Board Members

From:  Kathrene Hansen, Executive Director

Subj: Introduction of 2008 Federal Executive Board Leadership

It is with pleasure to introduce the leadership of the Federal Executive Board for 2008. I encourage you to make contact with the Board of Directors to offer your suggestions on ways we may best serve your agency. A brief biographical sketch of the 2008 Chair, Chair-Elect, and Vice-Chair follows:

Casey Kelley, Chair

Casey Kelley has been the General Services Administration (GSA) Federal Acquisition Service (FAS) Southern California Branch Manager since October 2005, providing assisted acquisition service and support to all Federal agencies. Prior to this, Mr. Kelley served two years as a Sales Account Manager and one year as an Information Technology Manager with GSA. Mr. Kelley began his career with GSA in 1999 as a Telecommunication Manager. Currently, Casey is completing the GSA Advanced Leadership Development Program, a one year competitive program designed to develop and enhance a broad base of leadership competencies for the purpose of developing a strong pool of mission focused and skills aligned leaders within the organization for future consideration for executive level positions within the organization. Before joining GSA, Casey began his career in civil service as the Telecommunications Manager for the U. S. Federal District Court in Los Angeles, California. Prior to that, Mr. Kelley spent nine years in private industry, working in sales with AT&T and Roche Laboratories. Mr. Kelley has successfully completed the Senior Executive Fellowship Program at Harvard University's Kennedy School of Government; earned a Master's certificate in Project Management from George Washington University, earned an MBA from Pepperdine University; and a BS degree in Business Administration from San Diego State University. Casey and his wife Mary have been married for seventeen years and have two children, Joey age 10 and Caitlin age 7.

Glen Banks, FEB Chair-Elect

Glen Banks is currently the Area Director of the Tri Counties Area of the Social Security Administration (SSA). The Tri Counties area covers all of Ventura and Santa Barbara and the Southwestern portion of Los Angeles County. The area has over 430 employees working in 18 SSA field offices and three contact stations. Mr. Banks began his career with SSA as a summer aide in 1986 during the summer months between his junior and senior years at Pitzer College in Claremont, CA. He worked as a part-time employee during his senior year and joined the agency full-time in a clerical position after completing his college education in 1987. Mr.

Banks held several field office front line positions before moving into his first managerial job in 1991. He's held office manager positions in the Crenshaw and Inglewood facilities. Mr. Banks spent several years in the Agency's headquarters in Baltimore, MD working in the Office of Labor Management and Employee Relations and serving as the Executive Officer for the Deputy Commissioner of Operations. He assumed his current position as Area Director in March 2005. He is a founding member of the Southern CA Black Affairs Advisory Council of SSA. Mr. Banks is a member of the Local Federal Campaign Committee of the Greater Los Angeles Combined Federal Campaign and worked as the CFC chairperson for the 2007 – 2008 campaign.

Chris Andrezze, FEB Vice-Chair

Chris Andrezze was appointed in January 2005 as the Regional Director of the Western Region of DCAA. He provides executive direction to the Region's Audit, Resource, Quality, Special Programs Office, and Equal Employment Opportunity Office. Mr. Andrezze is responsible for providing contract audit, accounting, and financial advisory services for the Department of Defense as well as other Executive Departments and agencies when requested. Mr. Andrezze provides direction to a region encompassing eight Western States, including Alaska and Hawaii, the Pacific Far East and the South Pacific. Between the regional office and 14 field audit offices, he has approximately 630 employees under his direction, about 90 percent of which are professional contract auditors. Mr. Andrezze started his DCAA career as a contract auditor in the San Francisco Bay Area in 1985. Since that time he advanced through numerous audit, supervisory, and management positions in the Western Region of DCAA. His management experience included serving as Branch Manager at the Pacific Branch Office in Yokohama, Japan. In April 1998, Mr. Andrezze was promoted to Regional Audit Manager in La Mirada, CA. In December 2000, he was appointed as the Deputy Regional Director of the Western Region of DCAA. Mr. Andrezze is a CPA in the State of California and graduated cum laude from Penn State University with a BA degree in Accounting and he has a master's degree from Central Michigan University.
